

Non-Mailable and Restricted Listing for AOR

* Some mailable items may be restricted depending on the host country agreements and command level officials ****

1. All sorts of liquids
 - A liquid is any substance that flows readily and assumes the form of the container, but retains an independent volume. For the purposes of mailability, a liquid may be a cream or paste or any other nonhazardous substance (except a gas) that may liquefy under existing conditions.
 - An item that is able to leak and cause damage.
 - o i.e. Oils, perfumes, lotions, body wash, shampoos, beverages etc.
2. Batteries
3. Unexploded and exploded ordnance, including landmines, rockets and sub munitions.
4. Pistols, revolvers, rifles and other concealable firearms include, but not limited to, short-barreled rifles.
5.  Replica handguns with or without lighter fluid.
6.  Antique firearms
7. Knives with a blade that opens automatically by hand pressure applied to a button or other device in the handle, or by operations of inertia, gravity, or both, or with a detachable blade propelled by a spring-operated mechanism.
8. Ammunitions
9. Shell Casings and magazines
10. Drugs such as narcotic, hallucinogenic, stimulants or depressants
11. Drug Paraphernalia
12. Alcohol including intoxicating liquors having 0.5 percent or more
13.  Bayonets
14. Food product laced with alcohol such a candy, cookies and cakes
15. Poisonous drugs and medicines, or materials that may kill or injure
16. Matter that can deteriorate in the mail and lose value, create a health hazard or cause an obnoxious odor, nuisance, or disturbance under ordinary mailing conditions.
17. Pork and pork products
18. Fruits and vegetables unless presented in dry condition.

19. Live birds, canaries, cockatiels, emus, finches, parakeets, and parrots
20. Live warm-blooded animals such as cats or kittens, dogs or puppies, guinea pigs, hamsters, mice, rabbits, rats and squirrels.
21. Plant, plant product, or other article capable of carrying a dangerous plant disease or insect infestation.
22. Fish or wildlife
23. Reptiles such as snakes, turtles and poisonous reptiles
24. Poisonous insects and spiders including camel spiders
25. Flammable and combustible liquids, gases and solids
26. Fireworks
27. Radioactive materials
28. Matches
29. Toxic substances including irritants
30. Corrosives
31. Explosives including explosive devices
32. Cigarette lighters
33.  Duffle bags
34. Dry ice
35. Oxidizing substances, and organic peroxides
36. Etiologic agents (clinical specimens unless mailed by medical facility)
37. Magnetized materials
38. Pesticides
39. Pandering advertisements
40. Sexually oriented advertisement (material)
41. Lewd or pornographic matter
42. Matter inviting violence
43. Matter promoting or furthering an animal-fighting venture
44. Government symbols including, but not limited to stickers
45. Sand and soil
46. Chemical warfare defense equipment (CWDE) such as A, B and C bags including all contents

47. War Trophies: Captured enemy weapons, Ammunition, Explosives Military equipment such as vehicles, trailers, generators, radios, TA-50 and communication devices and chemical defense equipment

